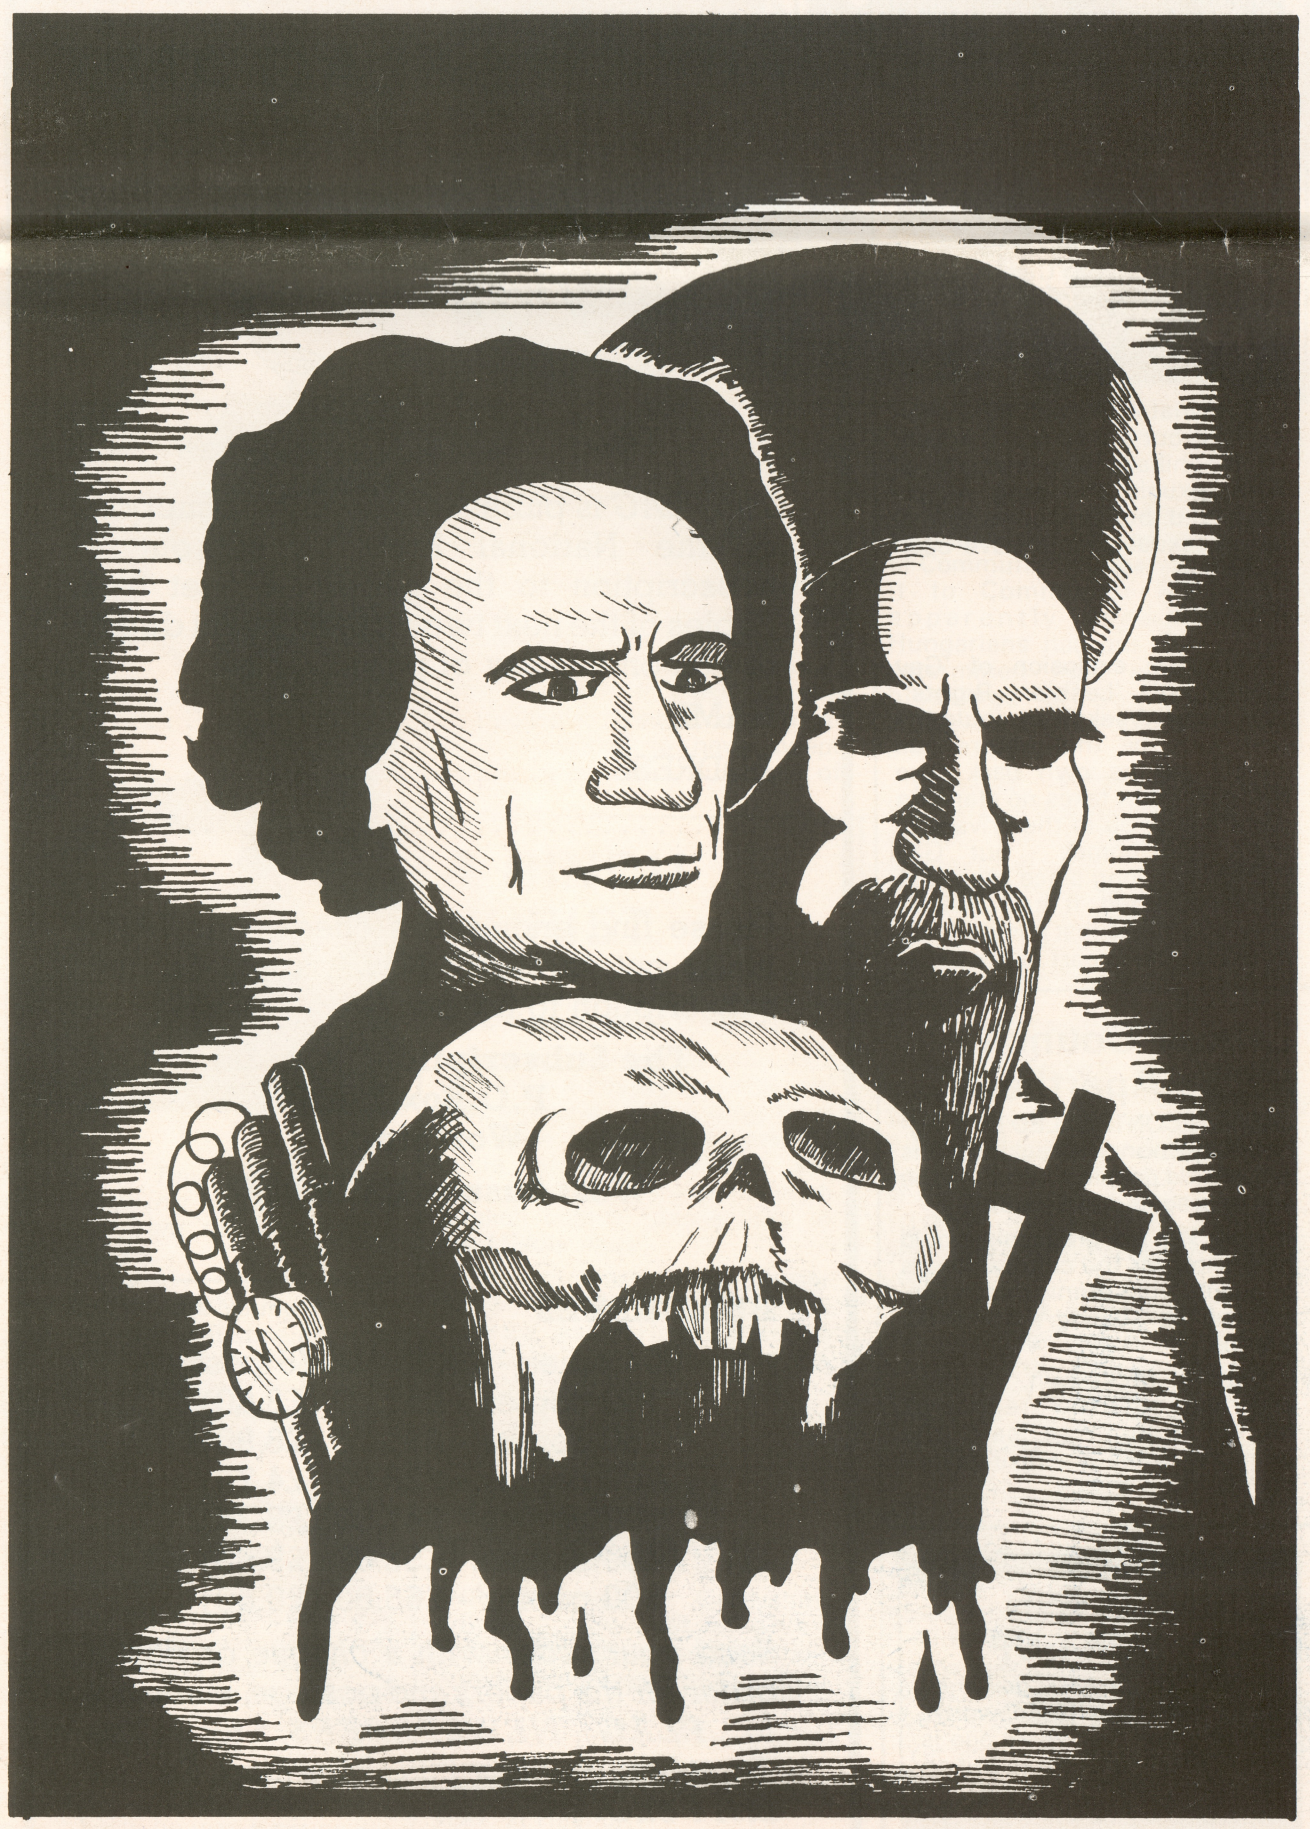
HIJACKING, BOMBING AND MURDER - IT'S TIME TO DEAL WITH THE . . . .

GODFATHERS OF TERRORISM!



IT'S TIME TO DEAL WITH GADDAFI & KHOMEINI

IN APRIL 1984 WPC Yvonne Fletcher was gunned down on the streets of London by a member of Col. Gaddafi's diplomatic staff. Her murderer was allowed to walk free from Britain.

Last month the hijackers of the Kuwaiti aircraft, who were allowed to board the plane in Khomeini's Iran also were given permission to walk free after murdering three passengers.

Gaddafi's arms sales to the IRA have been used to butcher British soldiers and civilians in Ulster, on mainland Britain and now in Europe.

The reign of terror of the likes of Gaddafi and Khomeini must be put to an end. The talking with terrorists, must cease. Those who bomb, murder and hijack must be taught that there will be just one end to their activities - the rope!

On Saturday 18th June the National Front will march through central London calling for an end to terrorism by an introduction of measures that the British government should have implemented years ago.

- ★ All Libyan, Iranian nationals expelled from Britain.
- ★ No talks or deals with any terrorists
- ★ Immediate action on hijacks and hostage takers.

It amounts to a simple message to those who contemplate terrorist action against Britain and British citizens.

Blackening the Bench

BLACK MAGISTRATES are now being appointed to the Bench at a higher rate than the proportion of Blacks of comparable age in the British population, according to a survey by the Lord Chancellor's office published on March 24th. And the percentage of Blacks appointed as magistrates almost trebled between 1980 and 1986, the last year for which figures are available.

It is outrageous and against all the principles of British Common Law that Britons should be tried by foreign immigrants in their own country. It is also outrageous that these Black magistrates, like their White colleagues, are political appointees chosen by the majority group on the local council.

What hope would a known NF activist, on a political charge before a Bench of Blacks appointed by a Communist Labour Council, have of a fair trial?

Influence of Freemasons

YET ANOTHER row has broken out in the Metropolitan Police Force about the corrupt influence of Freemasons. Chief Inspector Brian Woollard has been accused of a breach of discipline by being absent without leave.

Mr Woollard has been seeking an inquiry into the influence of Freemasonry within the Metropolitan Police. On hearing of the disciplinary charge Mr Woollard immediately retorted; "I am seeking a judicial review on counsel's advice of the Home Secretary's decision not to order an inquiry into the influence of Freemasonry in the Metropolitan Police"

Make sure Hurd gets the facts!

DOUGLAS HURD, the Home Secretary, has launched a world-wide appeal for evidence against alleged War Criminals. Anyone who has evidence about war criminals is invited to submit evidence to:-

The War Crimes Inquiry,
C/O The Home Office,
50, Queen Anne's Gate,
London SW1H 9AT.

It is vital that all evidence with regard to massacre of British troops in Palestine by Jewish terrorists such as Begin and Shamir be submitted to the Home Secretary so that prosecutions may proceed.

Young Tories learn from their elders

OH DEAR, young Tories do seem to learn quickly how to imitate their elders. They recently held an internal election for their chairman - the 'moderate' Martin Woodroofe beating the 'extremist' Andrew Tinney.

Clearly believing as their elders do, that they have a divine right to govern, they seem to have set about eliminating the opposition - allegations of ballot-rigging, secret funds and dirty tactics flew around.

They just managed to avoid having a higher than 100% turnout for the vote, but are having to submit to a Conservative Central Office enquiry into the allegations of the dispute poll.

One thing is certain. Both candidates should go far in the corrupt Tory Party.

AGENTS OF THE AIDS EPIDEMIC

CONNING THE BRITISH PEOPLE OVER AIDS!

by Ian Anderson

THE GOVERNMENT has spent millions of pounds on it. The television channels devote hours each week to it. Newspapers carry endless articles on it. Actors demonstrate against it.

But ordinary British people have as much chance of catching AIDS as being struck by lightning. Unless you are a queer or a drug addict you can forget about AIDS, the chances of you catching it are less than one in a million.

The only exception to this is the tragic case of those people who suffer from haemophilia and who require regular blood transfusions. Until screening of the blood prevented the use of AIDS-contaminated supplies a number of haemophiliacs died because they received infected blood which had been given by either homosexuals or drug addicts. The screening of blood should now prevent any further such tragedies.

SELF-INTEREST

So just why are we all being bombarded by a continuous deluge of AIDS propaganda. Well firstly, of course, a number of well-known MPs have a vested interest in stopping the spread of AIDS - after one of their all night parties in the House of Commons we might well start to see a few vacant places in the chamber.

A number of other influential professions also seem to be taking up the cause with just a hint of self-interest. However what is so incredible about the AIDS propaganda is that most of it is being aimed at normal heterosexual people - who are highly unlikely to contract any form of the disease.

What is even worse is that despite all the assurances from the Government there is little, if any, moral content to the propaganda. Television, which for years has had the attitude that casual sex is definitely to be encouraged, has now used the AIDS scare to further this prejudice. Their encouragement of the use of the condom is in effect a complete green light to casual sex - with no fear of any unpleasant consequences.

The whole AIDS scare originated when the homosexual population of cities like San Francisco started dropping like flies. Instantly their condition was highlighted by American politicians who fawn after every minority group they can find. Millions of dollars were spent on trying to find a cure, with the donations being secured by assuring potential contributors that the heterosexual population were also facing an AIDS epidemic.

In this country all the standard moralists were brought out, headed by Robert Runcie, the Archbishop of Canterbury. Except for a few brave souls they wring their collective hands and pray for a cure and hope that 'the tragedy' will go away.

But what in fact has AIDS done - a few, but a very few innocent haemophiliacs have died, a lot of homosexuals and drug addicts have died, but almost no normal heterosexual people have been affected.

NATURE

With the explosion of 'Gay Liberation', 'Lesbian Rights', 'Gay Pride Weeks' etc. could the real truth be that nature has simply got its own back. The National Front takes no stand on what adults do in the privacy of their own homes - but 'Gay Rights' has long since ceased to be so confined. It has recently been suggested that homosexuality should form part of the usual school curriculum.

No Government need take action on any AIDS epidemic. Nature is taking the action to correct the balance in our society ensuring that the natural instincts of family life are protected and the cancer of homosexuality treated once and for all.

French TV Interested

IAN ANDERSON, the NF's National Activities organiser appeared on French Television News on Tuesday 26th April.

He was interviewed in connection with the good showing of the Front Nationale in the French Presidential Elections and to what effect that performance might help the National Front in Britain.

Labour Council backs Apartheid.

LABOUR CONTROLLED Birmingham City Council is backing plans to have old people's homes in the city segregated by colour.

They say the proposals would help cater for the cultural needs of people from ethnic minorities, as well as helping them make friends.

Carole Mckeown, Labour chairman of the registered homes committee said the project was aimed at giving Black people more choice.

BURNT DOWN THEN BUILT UP

PROPERTY BURNT down by Black rioters in Handsworth, Birmingham two years ago is to be rebuilt at a cost to British taxpayers of £1.8 million.

IMPORTING FOREIGN LABOUR

ALTHOUGH UNEMPLOYMENT in the area is running at 17%, employers in London's Docklands are to seek to recruit Irish Republican bricklayers in preference to local people.

It was announced last month that members of the Building Employers' Confederation are to send teams to Dublin to recruit bricklayers to work in the East London docks development project.

Whilst over half a million skilled British workers have been driven out of the construction industry in the past few years, many of them still idle and on the dole, the imported Irishmen are to be paid over £600 a week. It's also almost certain that some of this money will find it's way into the coffers of the IRA!

The National Front asks, "What's wrong with British brickies?".

AFRICA FIRST!

A FURTHER £5 million aid to refugees in Africa was announced. by Christoper Patten, Minister for Overseas Development.

It brings the total British refugee relief in the current financial year to £26 million.

BRITISH NAMES FOR BRITISH PLACES

THE NATIONAL Front's campaign to rename streets now named after African terrorist Nelson Mandela is causing a real stir.

The Wembley Observer reports that the local NF are leafletting the Stonebridge Estate to drum up support to change their Mandela Close to Horatio Nelson Close.

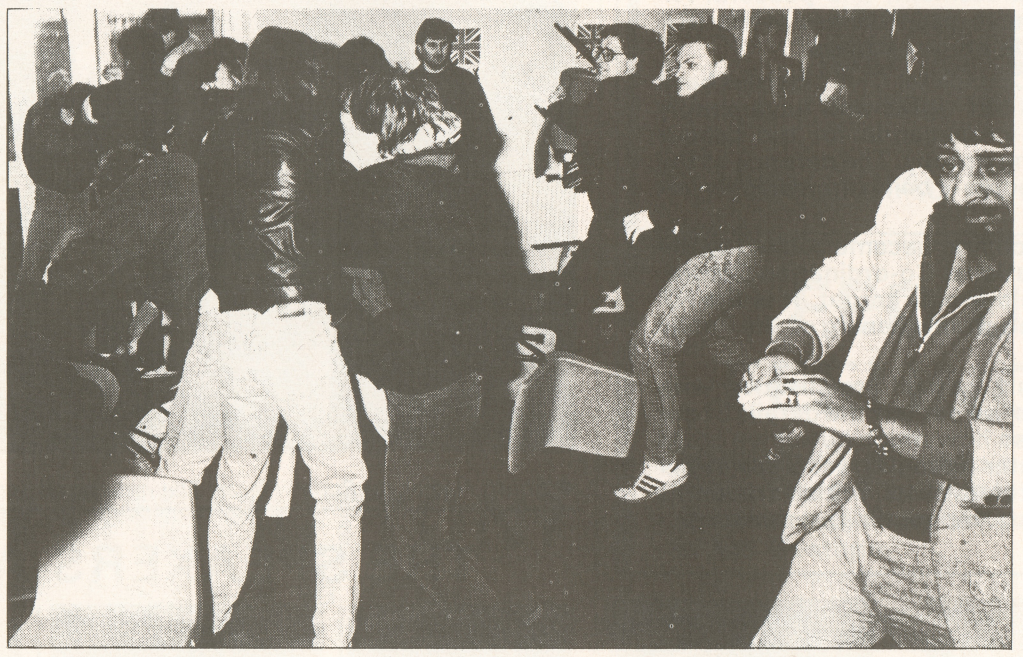
Black council leader Dorman Long described the campaign as "despicable", but the Wembley Observer acknowledged that the campaign was ". . . a move that will no doubt attract some public sympathy . . ".

THE POLICE PUBLISH THEIR FINDINGS CONCERNING THE GREENWICH MEETING

COP OUT

'The police were not negligent in dealing with this particular meeting'

An Asian thug legs it as National Front members battle for their rights. 13 Labour Party thugs were arrested after trying to smash up the NF election meeting.



ON SATURDAY 21st February 1987 more than forty Labour Party thugs launched an attack on a National Front by-election meeting in Charlton, South-West London.

The thirty NF members at the meeting including, women, pensioners and even an expectant mother, fought a heroic battle and drove the thugs from the hall. The meeting went ahead with justice and freedom of speech winning the day thanks to the courage of those who were prepared to stand up and fight for their rights.

When the dust had settled on the events the National Front complained to the Police over their lack of control over the day's events. There were four main complaints:-

i) NF canvassers were attacked as they went about their work.

ii) NF candidate Joe Pearce was attacked as he leafletted the constituency.

iii) An NF election worker was attacked by a thug with a brick as he waited at Charlton BR station.

iv) A Police Inspector deliberately let 40 thugs into the meeting after being told they had already committed acts of violence and were bent on more.

Recently the Police Complaints Authority published their findings. It was a classic 'Cop Out'. This is what they had to say:-

On complaints i) and ii), "Chief Inspector Sweetman . . . received various calls relating to minor skirmishes in the area, but it was clear to him that there was no serious disorder and that the police were well in control of the situation". So attacks on election workers and election candidates are O.K. as long as there is no serious disorder! We must remember that the next time the Labour candidate comes round.

On complaint iii) "One of the British Transport Policemen has stated that he saw one of the National Front supporters lying on the ground claiming he had been hit on the head . . . other officers maintain that no serious confrontation occurred at the vicinity of the railway station". So 200 thugs felling people with bricks is not a serious confrontation!

On Complaint iv) "In the Assistant Commissioner's view the officer was not negligent in dealing with this particular meeting . . . once the disorder had occurred and been dealt with the meeting was allowed to continue". What is so particular about an NF election meeting? Why did the disorder have to occur before it was dealt with, surely the job of the police is to *maintain order!

The outcome of this inquiry holds little comfort for the National Front. It confirms what we have known now for a number of years. The establishment will not uphold the rights of the National Front. To exist as a political party we have to make that stand totally alone and if necessary physically defend ourselves against the enemies of our country.

Just Too Bad

"CREMATE TERRORISTS' bodies" urges NF. That's the headline to a report in the Funeral Service Journal of April 1988.

The report continues 'At an emergency meeting of North London National Front held in the wake of the recent violence in Northern Ireland a resolution was passed urging that "The bodies of all terrorists killed in Northern Ireland should be cremated and their ashes scattered in an unmarked place. This will stop propaganda funerals. If cremation is against the religious beliefs of those involved, too bad" they concluded.

NF Civil Servant with eight years Service.

A SICK campaign has been launched to threaten the career of a National Front directorate member.

The trendy-leftie and ethnic grovelling London magazine City Limits has claimed an exclusive in disclosing that NF Directorate member, Paul Nash, is working as a Civil Servant in a North London Employment Office.

● Paul Nash: No problems

The story published in the April 28th issue is designed to stir up opposition to Mr Nash's employment and get the growing number ethnic minority civil servants to call on their union to take action against Mr. Nash.

Paul Nash's service record to his government department is impeccable. As a loyal and trusted civil servant he told The FLAG he expected no problems whatsoever with his union.

NF 'Brown Trout Campaign' starts Rumpus

THE NATIONAL Front campaign launched in last month's issue of The FLAG has upset the Game Conservancy.

The National Front are concerned that the Brown Trout, the only trout native to British waters is facing extinction and has called upon the Government to protect the Brown Trout and its environment.

Obviously not a native to British waters is the Game Conservancy's director Richard Van Oss who said his organisation wanted nothing to do with the National Front.

The Angling Times of Wednesday 27th April reported that the National Front were adding their voice to the campaign to raise £25,000 to investigate the decline of the Brown Trout from Scottish lochs to the chalk streams of Hampshire.

ST.GEORGE'S DAY: THE NF IS BACK!

IAN ANDERSON reviews the day's events and ponders on what might have happened.

IN BRITAIN TODAY the rights of individual Britons are under threat as never before. In the last few years Martin Wingfield and Joe Pearce have both been jailed for writing the truth about the racial nightmare in Britain, Nationalists have been subjected to official acts of harassment, and peaceful NF marches and demonstrations have been banned while IRA murderers are allowed to parade on our streets.

Groups such as the National Council for Civil Liberties have done nothing to stand up for our rights and have simply degenerated into an organ of propaganda for the Labour Party and various other left-wing groups. The defence of the fundamental rights of British people is being increasingly left to the National Front.

It was the National Front which first became subject to the activities of Scotland Yard's National Co-ordination Centre, well before the miners became a similar target. It is the NF which has borne the brunt of the strengthening of the Public Order Act.

Yet the National Front is only a small organisation with meagre resources. On this page we set out the details of our latest battle for freedom and also how much better we could have fought if we had had greater financial resources at our disposal - if you want to see traditional British freedoms preserved, then please help us by sending a donation - TODAY!

IN FEBRUARY the National Directorate decided that the annual St. George's Day parade would be held in Leeds where the local NF branch had been growing steadily over the last year. After the application was made to Leeds police these are the events that took place . . .

What actually happened . . .

Tuesday 12th April: Leeds Police telephone and inform us that there is a circus parade due to cross our route and that they are not prepared to police both marches. The implication is that unless we change our route they will apply for a ban.

Wednesday 13th April: Not wishing to be the cause of the banning of a circus parade, and yet wishing to hold our march, the NF offers to move our march to the Leeds suburb of Cross Gates. A formal written application is sent off. On the same day local newspapers and the local radio station are informed of our plans.

Friday 15th April: We negotiate an agreeable route for our march with the local police for Cross Gates. They indicate that they do not anticipate any problems with our march. We inform the local papers and radio. We do not have time or money to inform any other media.

Saturday 16th April: The National Directorate has its regular meeting and decides on the details of the march including stewarding and speakers.

Tuesday 19th April: The police inform us by phone that they are applying for a Public Order Act ban. They seem surprised when we instantly tell them that we will then "hold a rally on the Town Hall steps in Oxford Place which you (the police) have no power to ban". They promise to get back to us. We phone the two local newspapers and the radio station.

Thursday 21st April: We hear of growing Red opposition. The Yorkshire Evening Post phones us for further details of our activity.

Friday 22nd April: 10.00am BBC's Look North programme phones us asking for details. 12.00 noon the Leeds police phone us and tell us unbelievably that "You will be allowed your rally on the Town Hall steps - the duration will be limited to 30 minutes and your numbers to 50" We are told that the local Labour Party are holding a rally near Elland Road with the same conditions.

Saturday 23rd April: 250 NF members turn up to the day's activities. At 2.20pm one group of NF members make their way to the Town Hall for the outdoor rally which attracts the attention of numerous passers-by.

At 3.00pm this group joins the rest of the NF members at an indoor rally in the Griffin Hotel, central Leeds. At 4.30pm, after a rousing rally a collection of £496.00 is taken and the rally disperses peacefully. The twenty or so Labour Councillors monitoring our activity have left the area well before the rally is over.

What could have happened with greater resources . . .

Tuesday 12th April: Leeds police phone to tell us that there is a circus parade due to cross our route and that they are not prepared to police both marches. The implication is that unless we change our route they will apply for a ban. We tell them that two NF officials will travel to Leeds to negotiate alterations which will prevent a clash but which will keep us in the city centre.

Wednesday 13th April: Our officials travel to Leeds and negotiate a city centre route which avoids the circus route. Press releases are sent to all national and local newspapers, radio and television stations.

Friday 15th April: Local newspapers and radio phone us over the hundreds of posters that have gone up in every Yorkshire town advertising the march.

Saturday 16th April: The Directorate meets and agrees to allocate all the necessary resources to ensure the march goes ahead.

Tuesday 19th April: The police inform us by phone that they are applying for a Public Order Act ban. They seem surprised when we tell them that the Chief Constable will be served with affidavits concerning the lack of any threat to public order in Leeds caused by our march and that we will be ready to appear in the Royal Courts of Justice in the Strand, London at 10.00am on Thursday 20th April. A prepared press release is delivered by hand to all national media offices as well as those in Leeds, informing them of this development.

Thursday 21st April: The Chief Constable of West Yorkshire is forced to appear in Court and can produce no evidence of any threat to public order in Leeds caused by our march. We are granted an injunction allowing our march unless the evidence is produced. We gain national TV coverage and front page headlines in local and national newspapers. Because we won the case our total expenses amount to just £150 (If we had lost it could have totalled £3,000).

Friday 22nd April: BBC 'Look North' interviews a National Front spokesman. It is the main item of news on all the local media.

Saturday 23rd April: Following the tremdous publicity, over 1,000 NF members and supporters FORM UP AND MARCH OFF at 3.00pm. The whole event runs smoothly and is videoed by NF cameramen.

Monday 25th April: The membership applications start pouring in.

● Democrat candidate Dukakis busy wooing the Jewish vote in New York.

WHOSE FINGER ON THE BUTTON?

The men who could bring the nuclear holocaust to Britain

By Ian Anderson

IT NOW seems likely that the next President of the United States will be either George Bush or Michael Dukakis. The one who is elected will have the power to fire the nuclear missiles based on British soil and thus turn Britain into a nuclear battleground.

Until recently there was a possibility that the Reverend Jesse Jackson could have reached the White House. That would have been a nightmare of unimaginable proportions. He has almost certainly failed this time, but there is every reason to believe that he will try again next time with a real possibility of him being elected.

Jesse Jackson once described the genocidal Cambodian leader Pol Pot in terms of '. . sometimes even the best people become cruel and repressive''. He regards South Africa as more dangerous than the Soviet Union, and got on well with Fidel Castro on his last visit to Cuba.

He has also described the terrorist campaign of the IRA as part of ''the struggle of the anti-colonialist forces''. Should Britain ever seek to eradicate the IRA murderers once and for all Mr Jackson might well be in favour of Amercian intervention.

As an alternative we have Michael Dukakis who will, if elected, certainly continue to support the expansionist aims of the bandit state of Israel - his wife is Jewish and he is certainly getting the lions-share of the influential Jewish vote. He has also been keen to out-grovel Mr Al Gore, another democratic candidate in the presidential race, for the various ethnic votes.

However by far the most likely next president is the Republican George Bush - the ultimate in Reagan yes-men. If elected he will continue to ferment war in the Middle East and attempt to use Britain simply as a heavily armed forward base to be sacrificed when necessary.

Whichever is elected is equally bad for an independent Britain. The people of America have the right to elect anyone they like as their president, but whoever they elect, it is urgent for Britain to rid herself of all commitments to America - military and economic and to fully assert our sovereign independence as a nation.

The Real Reason

ON THE World Service of the BBC on Sunday 24th April at 5.00am Douglas Hurd, Home Secretary, remarked on the banning of the National Front march in Leeds the previous day that ''The National Front flourishes in places like Leeds and other working class districts.''

● Hurd: Worried about NF growth

Three days earlier the Home Secretary had banned the NF march because it was likely to lead to scenes of public disorder, now it appears he banned it to stop the National Front gaining new recruits.

Hurd Again

''Last year, the lowest immigration figures to date coincided with a General Election in which the National Front declined to field a candidate''.

That was Douglas Hurd speaking to Wycombe Conservative Association. He didn't mention that his Government more than trebling the fee to be allowed to stand a candidate might have had something to do with it.

For the record the 'lowest immigration figures to date' was a mere 45,000 Indians, Pakistanis, Africans and West Indians entering Britain.

Waning Fortunes?

ONLY NINE delegates turned up for the annual conference of the Young Liberals.

The start of business was put off for two hours in the hope that there would be more arrivals at the hall in Llandudno where the mayor was waiting to greet the conference.

An embarrassed official told the press that despite the poor attendance a secret debate on the merger with the Social Democrats would go ahead.

PRISON CRISIS

VIOLENT PRISONERS are being dumped in an open prison because there is nowhere else to put them.

Ford Prison, in West Sussex, designed specifically for non-violent offenders has been forced to take 'lifers' because of the shortage of cells in maximum security prisons.

Steven Stone, Prison Officers' Association branch chairman told a public meeting in Arundel that an officer's eye had been gouged out and another threatened with a broken bottle when a group of 'lifers' were told to return to a closed prison.

The prison crisis could be solved tomorrow. All petty criminals whose crimes did not involve violence should be released and their sentence completed by community service.

MUSIC IS CREATING RACIAL TENSION

THE EDUCATION Bill due to become law this summer proposes that certain core subjects must be taught in all schools in Britain.

Moslems in Birmingham are up in arms over the move which will force children to take part in music lessons.

Mr Mohammad Afzal of the Sparkbrook Islamic Centre said, ''The Bill will be a great setback to our community as no efforts have been made to include the needs of Moslems''. Afzal, a teacher and governor of two Sparkbrook schools said he would oppose the ruling.

At present Moslems are currently allowed to exclude their children from non-Islamic activities - such as music drama and dance lessons.

Things They Say:

''Don't be surprised if in a few years time Muslims, Sikhs and Hindus display a solidarity and pressure that could disrupt and endanger all that we have treasured as the British way of life and we become the minority not perhaps tolerated''

FED UP WITH FEELING GUILTY

TO DRAW THE public's attention to the intolerance of the Race Relations lobby, this newspaper oftens draws comparison between their methods and those of the Gestapo.

In the minds of most right-thinking people that comparision might be a little over the top, but not to British people living in Bristol. The sinister goings-on in that city over the past month are enough to send shivers down the spine of anyone who has ever held a patriotic thought in their mind.

TOTALLY EXPECTED

It started with a BBC programme on Race called Black and White about two journalists one British, one West Indian who went to Bristol to find out what the British people thought of coloured immigrants. No one will be surprised with their verdict of ''not much''.

Armed with secret cameras and microphones the reporters revealed that landladys' preferred White lodgers to Black, pub owners preferred White bar staff to Black and night club owners preferred White guests to Black. All to be totally expected, the British people preferring to be with their own kind.

But the Race Relations Gestapo were furious at the findings of the programme. While the Commission for Racial Equality were demanding that the tapes of the film be used to prosecute those land ladies, club owners and publicans featured, their army of thugs were subjecting the same people to a campaign of terror. Bristol police have become so concerned with the situation that they have put guards on their homes, after intimidation ranging from abusive telephone calls, and midnight callers to death threats.

OVER-KILLED

Race Relations Gestapo, aside, the purpose of the BBC film was to make the British people feel ashamed of not taking Africans, West Indians, Pakistanis and Indians to their bosoms, for not moving over to share their country with them. Ten years ago the programme might have had some effect, but not today.

Just like the Jews with their ''holocaust'', the Race Lobby have over-killed their subject. The British people are fed up with being told to feel guilty, especially by immigrants and the sycophantic inadequates within the indigenous population who champion the immigrant cause. We in the NF should welcome such programmes. The Race Relations Industry together with the coloured immigrants themselves, voicing their strident demands and accusations, are the best recruiting agents the National Front has ever had.

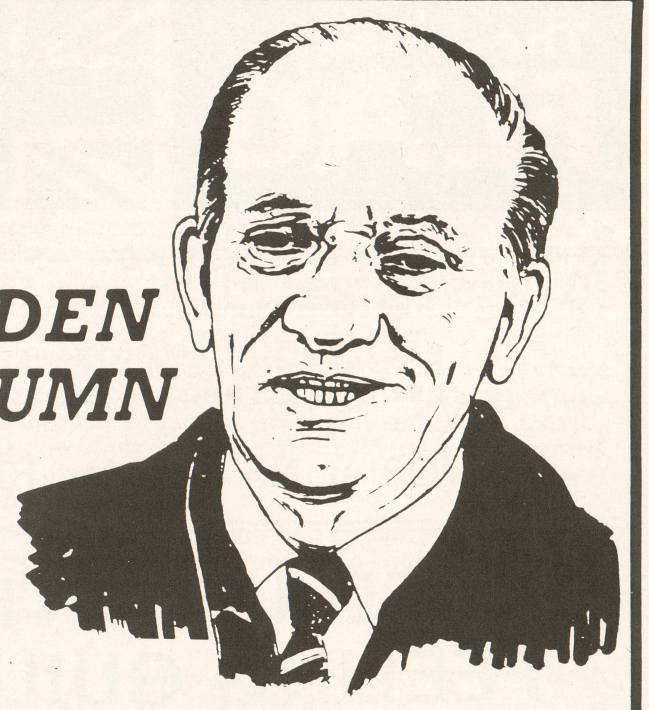
THE TED BUDDEN COLUMN

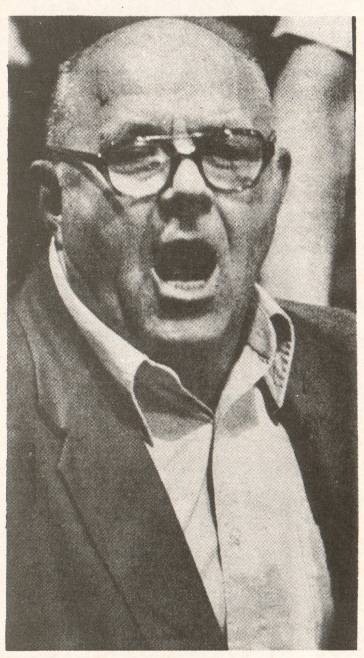


Ritual Sacrifice

JUST RECENTLY I had the misfortune to see a TV documentary about Israel's little local difficulty with those tiresome Arabs. In it, a Jewish West Bank settler, a certain Mrs Cohen (a truly ghastly old hebroid plug ugly) spoke of her determination to rid the "promised land" of Arabs and boasted of her past membership of the terrorist Stern Gang in which she had "fought to liberate Palestine".

Was I alone, I wonder, in having my stomach turned by this veritable gem of dishonesty and self delusion that just about sums up the nature of Israel on this the fortieth anniversary of the stolen land?

Certainly my co-racialists in the United States seem to have no such qualms for they have become so accustomed to procuring for Israel that they have readily acceded to the Jewish demand for a pound of flesh to celebrate the anniversary.



★A pound of flesh

The ritual sacrifice in question is poor John Demjanjuk, an aged American who was stripped of his citizenship and deported to Israel, of which he was not a citizen, in order that he might be 'tried' for alleged 'war crimes'. Although evidence of identity is notoriously unreliable at any time, forty years after the event Demjanjuk was placed on a one-man identity parade and denounced as "Ivan the Terrible" by numerous survivors of the death camp - so many, in fact, that one might question whether Treblinka was ever a death camp.

Arraigned before a hanging judge in a court packed with a lynch mob, poor hapless John Demjanjuk was found guilty and sentenced to death for crimes he was alleged to have committed against citizens of another country, in another country, by a state which did not even exist at the times of the alleged offences - a compendium of injustice and illegality which is hard to imagine let alone match.

The Romans were condemned for throwing Christians to the lions - let it be known, then, that America throws them to the sharks. Justice has been stood on her ear and her face rubbed in the dirt with American collusion.

. . .crimes he was alleged to have committed against citizens of another country, by a state which did not even exist at the time . . .

The next time that America postures as the defender of truth and justice, we would do well to remember that fact.

Hole in the Middle

MIRACLES ARE very strange but very few of them are as strange as the "Thatcher economic miracle", a policy which positively encourages British or neo-British "entrepeneurs" to invest in foreign countries while happily allowing foreigners to take over what little is left of the British manufacturing industry.

Having subsidised the Japanese attempt to undermine the British motor industry and sold Leyland Bus to the Swedes for scrap value, we now seem set to allow the take-over of Rowntree Mackintosh by the Swiss-based conglomerate Nestle. Neither the Japanese or the Swiss would ever allow foreigners to penetrate their home industries and the Swiss actually have a law forbidding it.

In view of this, I regard the Nestle bid as impudent for the Swiss must surely believe that if we allow them to take over the world famous makers of Polo, the mint with the hole, we must have a gaping hole between the ears.

With some justification, it seems, for the silence with which officialdom has so far greeted the bid is positively eerie.

One wonders why. Can it be that Mrs Thatcher's fat friends, who have so mightily benefited from the Thatcher revolution, have salted away their loot in those mysterious Swiss banks?

CUTS PUT LIVES AT RISK

A GOVERNMENT decision to remove line-throwing equipment from lifeboats to save £200,000 a year is putting lives at risk.

It's just one of the cuts Britain's coastguards are facing along with 50 jobs lost and three coastguard stations at Hartland Point(Devon), Ramsey(Isle of Man) and Moray(Peterhead) being closed down.

The Government say the closures are possible because of advances in technology but David Heywood of the National Union of Civil and Public Servants said such moves are changing the nature of Coastguard work. "It appears they are to become radio operators rather than life savers".

It's a scandal that such cuts should put lives at risk especially when £200,000 is just small change to the parasites on the floors of the Stock Exchange, parasites who this Government never misses a chance to grovel to.

"Unusual sentence" for NF Chairman

A BLACK policeman, under oath, at Wells Street Magistrates Court on 8th April told the bench that NF Chairman, Martin Wingfield, had used four-letter words, threatened marchers supporting the IRA and fought with the police.

Mr Wingfield was appearing in court charged with threatening behaviour arising out of the NF demonstration against an IRA march in London on January 30th.

Mr Wingfield told the magistrates that he never used four-letter words in private or public, had never at any time threatened the marchers and had not fought with the police at any time during his lifetime.

NF Chairman Martin Wingfield appalled at Police evidence

The magistrates took fifteen minutes deliberating on the case before finding the NF chairman 'guilty'. They did not impose a fine and just bound Mr Wingfield over to keep the peace for 12 months.

A court official remarked that such a sentence after such police evidence was 'extremely unusual' and that the magistrates' verdict implied that they had not believed the prosecution evidence but was not prepared give a Not Guilty verdict as this would mean that the bench had believed the policeman was lying.

Mr Wingfield told The FLAG that he was unhappy with the verdict and appalled at the evidence given by the Police.

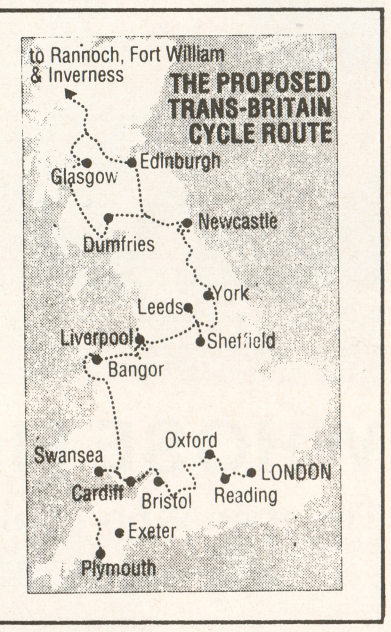
WALKING TO YORK!

GOT A week to spare. Then what about a lovely walk from Liverpool to York through some breathtaking countryside?

It's a real possibility now thanks to a scheme by Barnsley Borough Council to turn up to 20 disused railways routes into paths for walkers and cyclists.



And it's not only the North where such conversions are taking place, the York route is just 160 miles of disused railway track out of 600 that the Department of Transport are being persuaded to give over to the walkers.

While the National Front would like to see many of the abandoned railway lines in Britain re-opened for the reasons of energy conservation, lessening of pollution and making our roads safer, until that happens it's right that the miles of disused railway track should provide a welcome retreat for Britain's cyclists and ramblers.

Euro Con Trick Threatens British Pig Farmers

THE LIVELIHOODS of British Pig Farmers are threatened because the EEC insists on subsidising Pig Farmers in Holland and Denmark.

The British farmers are the victims of a big con trick. The EEC subsidises the Dutch and Danish farmers because in theory they pay more for their feed. But the truth is that their pigs are fed mainly on low cost manioc imported from Third World countries like Thailand making feed cost much lower than for British producers.

THE MEN IN BLACK

Music Review by Bob Nash

A BRITISH band who have been going strong for some 11 years, and who have recently enjoyed renewed chart success with their version of the classic Kinks hit 'All Day and All of the Night' are the Stranglers.

Masquerading as a 'New Wave' Punk band back in 1977, it soon became obvious to critics and fans alike, that the Stranglers had more to offer than the simple three chords or less that typified Punk Rock.

The band's musical hallmarks are a powerful keyboard dominated sound coupled with an inventive collection of Rock songs. In fact even from their earliest days, the Strangler's music had always sounded like a more contemporary version of the Doors, but with a sense of humour; which probably explains why lead singer Hugh Cornwall has been able to survive the pressures of stardom and the music business, whilst Doors singer Jim Morrison did not.

Even from their first album the Stranglers proved unique. Tracks such as Goodbye Toulouse, London Lady, Get a Grip on Yourself and Down in the Sewer, being examples of the distinctive powerful songs to be heard on the bands initial album Rattus Novengicus(1977).

The Stranglers released another eight albums between 1977 and 1987 each of which has seen the band's music progress and mature. No More Heroes(1977), Black and White(1978), The Raven(1979), The Men in Black((1980), Le Follie(1981), Feline(1983), Aural Sculpture(1984) and Dreamtime (1986).

The Stranglers have always made a point of championing a White European feel and outlook in their music as expressed as such tracks as Longships, The Raven, European Female and Le Follie'. Bass Guitarist J.J.Burnel who released a solo album in 1979 Euroman Cometh commented on the band's European imagery in their music. In a recent interview with Sounds he had this to say about the inspiration for the band's music.

"We've always had two sides, an aggressive side and a quieter classical side . . . Everything these days is very much rhythmic which is fine but I think they sacrifice a bit of the classical European thing. Rhythm is much more African or American, and I don't think you should deny your roots . . . in Europe we have classical roots".

The Stranglers continue to be unpopular with the Red music press, yet fashionable among White audiences. Long may they confound their critics.

LABOUR COUNCIL BEAST RAPES MUM

A LEADING Labour councillor was jailed for eight years on March 25th for the sickening rape of a mother who went to him for help.

Councillor Bryan Bennett, Labour Social Services spokesman on Hereford and Worcester County Council, thought he could get away with raping one of his constituents because he was an important local Labour politician and a magistrate. He believed that no-one would take the word of an ordinary young mum against his, especially as she had a history of depression. The local social worker to whom the sobbing victim reported the Labour Councillor's bestial attack the next day obviously agreed, since she did nothing about it. So the rapist got away with his crime for five years.

ANTI-NATIONAL FRONT

The 32 year-old blonde mother of three had turned to Bennett in desperation to get her children back from council care. Instead the councillor and JP, who had risen to prominence in the area as a leading campaigner against the growth of the National Front in Hereford and Worcester, talked about pornography, lesbianism and sexual experimentation before tearing off the distraught mother's jeans and brutally raping her on the settee in her own front room. He then coolly rang his wife to arrange a lift home. He left his victim sobbing and expecting his child. The next day, senior social worker Susan Law did not do anything when she was told the victim's story of rape.

In despair, the young mother gave up hope of justice and had her rapist's baby. Only when the Council threatened, four years later, to take that child into care too did she, in desperation, go to the Police.

Blood tests soon proved that the councillor was indeed the father of the child and he admitted having sex with her.

A Stafford Crown Court jury found Bryan Bennett guilty and now he is behind bars. Reporting the case, the Labour Daily Mirror, owned by Czech Communist Labji Hoch, alias 'Maxwell' covered up for the Red rapist by carefully avoiding mentioning which party he was a councillor for!

DEFEND THE DOORSTEP PINTA

BRITAIN'S DOOR step pint faces its biggest ever threat thanks to a new ruling from the European Court of Justice in Luxemborg.

The Common Market has ordered Britain to allow the import of cheap pasteurised milk from France and Holland. It's EEC meddling in our affairs which could put thousands of British milkmen on the dole and devastate British dairies whose milk float deliveries make up 80% of their sales.

The daily visits by milkmen, with their unofficial role of keeping an eye on Britain's elderly folk living on their own, is a tradition. The National Front, Britain's only political party pledged to withdraw Britain from the Common Market, will be at the forefront of the campaign to save our doorstep pinta.

● Eastern Bloc Troops: Keeping Nationalism in check.

RUMANIAN RUMBLINGS

''WORKERS PARADISE'' Hungary is getting increasingly annoyed with neighbouring "Workers Paradise" Rumania. The reason? A clash of the Nationalism that Communism was supposed to have swept aside into the 'Dustbin of History'.

After the last war, Communist Russia carved a great chunk out of Communist Hungary and gave it to Communist Rumania, apparently because the Hungarians had put up a more determined fight against the blessings of Sovietism as conveyed by the cuddly Uncle Joe Stalin.

However, 1,700,000 ethnic Hungarians live in the carved out chunk, Count Dracula's old stamping ground, Transylvania. Not surprisingly, Hungary wants her people back, and they want to return, 'Workers Paradise' or no, to being ruled by their own people.

BRUTAL REPRESSION

The Rumanian Communist Government, which consists of 38 members of the family of Dictator Nicolae Ceaucescu, has responded with brutal repression of its Hungarian subjects, over 10,000 of whom have fled illegally from Rumania in the last year.

Rumania is now building an 'Iron Curtain' fence along its border with its Communist neighbour. Hungary has retaliated by backing Western motions condemning repression of ethnic minorities in Eastern Bloc countries at the Joint Conference on Security and Co-operation in Vienna.

But for the presence of Soviet troops doing their 'internationalist duty' by garrisoning both states, it is widely considered that the two Communist neighbours would end up at war.

Yet again the superficiality of Marxism becomes clear. When it comes to the crunch, blood and nationhood, not 'class' is the deciding factor in history.

A HINDU CHRIST.

AN INDIAN actor, Victor Bannerjee, is to play Christ in the York Mystery Plays this summer.

Bannerjee, who played Dr. Aziz in the film A Passage to India, will play alongside 300 unpaid local Yorkshire folk in the traditional cycle of plays, which are performed every four years in an English custom dating back to the Middle Ages.

Not surprisingly, when director Steven Pimlott offered him the part the Asian Hindu admitted that he had 'never heard of the York Mystery Plays'.

Is nothing sacred?

QUICK ON THE DRAWL

THREE HUNDRED Derbyshire workers are being given elocution lessons to replace their native accents with an American drawl.

They will then be dressed up as cowboys and the like to welcome visitors to a £9 million 'Wild West Park' at Heanor.

Pathetic isn't it?

RACE ACT TRIAL

A POLICE chief is being taken to court for telling British people in Hounslow the truth about coloured immigration.

Chief Supt. Cecil Jordan had reported that racial tension on the Ivybridge and Summerwood council estates in the borough was due to Asians being given preferential treatment.

He wrote to Hounslow Council asking them to reconsider their positive discrimination policies as failure to do so might result in violence.

Mr. Jordan is to appear before Westminster County Court accused of breaching the 1976 Race Relations Act.

The pre-trial hearing is to be held on 24th May.

FLAG SPORT

WHAT A GREAT ASSET

STEVE DAVIS took his fifth Embassy World Snooker final on Monday 2nd May beating 1979 World Champion Terry Griffiths 18-11 in the final at Sheffield.

The final was never a classic with Davis asserting himself to take Monday's play 10-3, but credit must be given to Griffiths for getting to the final, his first time for nine years.

Both Davis and Griffiths are great assets to the game of snnoker. Both complete sportsmen who conduct themselves with dignity both in and out of the snooker halls.

Snooker has had a bad press over the last 12 months so no doubt the governing body of the sport were very happy that two men, such great assets to the sport should contest the final.

ZOLA BUDD - THE FACTS!

★ ZOLA BUDD is White, was born in South Africa and is an exceptional athlete.

★ In 1984 she moved to Britain and has lived here ever since. Of course she visits her parents who still live in South Africa.

★ Because she is resident in Britain she has become a naturalised Briton and holds a British passport.

★ She is clearly non-political and has refused to either condone or condemn apartheid.

So why should the National Front support her right to run for Britain in the Seoul Olympic Games. Firstly because she fulfils all the criteria set by the National Front for remaining in Britain as a British citizen. Secondly because she just wants to get on with her running and it is grossly unfair that she is being victimised in this way - if she had come from such well-known democracies as the USSR or Zimbabwe, Kenya or Pakistan there would be no such outcry.

Thirdly because the only country that should decide whether an athlete can compete for Britain - is Britain. If the Black African countries don't like it they can always withdraw from the Olympics - an all-White Olympic Games would be a definite improvement.

Racing Information

OUR TIPSTER GETS A ROASTING

The FLAG's racing buff has had a roasting in the paper's mailbag.

His selections for the last two months have performed atrociously. Although full of excuses he admits that the proof of the pudding is profit, and there's been no profit for the FLAG punters in the last eight weeks.

However, optimistic as ever, he believes he has three gems this month. They are: Lapse a three year-old maiden, Silca Supreme David Elsworth promising two year-old and Dismiss, a 7 furlong handicapper who could set up a sequence of wins.

We wait with baited breath!

Race Bias at Cricket College

A CRICKET college has been accused of racial bias.

The Haringey Cricket College of North London was accused by Mr Jitesh Patel, a Ugandan Asian, of discrimination after he had twice been turned down as a trainee cricketer.

Mr Patel claims the college is biased in favour of ... West Indians!

STOP PRESS

RED PICKET FAILS TO STOP NF PAPER SALE

ON SATURDAY 30th April South Coast NF Regional Organiser, Ian Taylor, and his wife Caralyn held a paper sale at the Arndale Centre in Eastbourne.

They were met by a picket of a dozen local Labour Party members who tried to stop the public from buying copies of The FLAG and Vanguard.

With the local police refusing to move the pickets on, the situation became distinctly uncomfortable for the two lone NF paper sellers as the mob started chanting "Nazi scum off our streets" and were joined by some of Eastbourne's coloured immigrant population.

But the Red demo just motivated the local people of the Sussex town to rally around the NF. Within an hour Ian and Caralyn had sold out of papers and had had numerous messages of support.

"It was an excellent paper sale", Ian told The FLAG. "I was concerned at first over the possibility of trouble but when the Reds saw the support we were getting from the local people it took the wind out of their sails".

The NF are back at the Arndale Centre this weekend (May 7th).

AIDS MENACE OF BLACK BOXER!

ALL AFRICA lightweight boxing champion Langton Tinago of 'Zimbabwe' was forced to pull out of a championship fight in Peterborough on April 17th when it turned out he was an AIDS carrier.

Fight promoter Terry Shuffle-bottom informed the British Boxing Board of Control that he had received information from Africa that Tinango 33, had failed the AIDS tests which the board had made compulsory for all overseas boxers wanting to fight in this country.

Until he lost the title to Mo Hussein last March, the Black boxer was Commonwealth lightweight champion. But for the positive AIDS test, Tinango was to have fought his 107th professional contest against Lester Gloster in an eliminator for the Commonwealth light-welterweight crown.

RIFE AS VD

This affair highlights the extent to which AIDS is a 'Black Death' as well as a 'gay plague'. The disease is speading like wildfire among negroes. Unlike among Whites, where AIDS is almost entirely a disease of queers and drug addicts, the virus has spread into the general black population, and is as rife as VD, itself a thousand times more common among African Blacks than among European Whites. In parts of Africa, a third of the Negro population is AIDS-positive.

Doctors at the University of the West Indies recently revealed that Blacks get AIDS far more easily than Whites because Negroes are born with chemically different blood immune cells to Whites.

However, Whites boxing, or for that matter going to bed with, Blacks are still in danger of catching this incurable deadly disease off them.

Paying the Piper

NEXT TIME Mrs Thatcher mentions the possibility of football clubs paying for policing outside their grounds, or the NF paying for the police who accompany our marches, she might like to think about this:-

On 14th April, Douglas Hogg, the Under Secretary of State for Home Affairs, told the House of Commons in a written reply that the Sussex Police Authority has approved a budget of £1,400,000 for policing the next Conservative Party Conference.

That would have paid for a few hospital beds.

Well Done Lincoln City

A GM Conference League record crowd of 9,432 saw Lincoln City beat Wycombe Wanderers 2-0 on Monday 2nd May and secured their football league future next season.

They never come back is an old boxing saying that many would have thought about Lincoln City. It's taken courage and commitment to prove that nothing is impossible. Well Done Lincoln!

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL FRONT?

The National Front is a political party that is dedicated to gaining power through the ballot box

It is a political party that is guided by a Directorate made up of 6 nationally elected and 12 regionally elected officers of the party

The National Front has branches throughout England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland which hold monthly meetings, contest elections and carry out numerous local activities such as leafletting, paperselling and fund-raising socials.

● Members of the National Directorate: Guiding the National Front

British people from every walk of life are members of the National Front they are all linked together in working for the NF because they believe that our country is being taken away from us; changed beyond recognition with out our consent; betrayed by both Conservative and Labour Governments over the last twenty years.

The National Front believes in Britain for the British. It believes that to feel for your country you need to be part of that country, to own a stake in that country whether it be in the house you live in or the work you do.

Every day British people are joining the National Front. People who feel that their needs have been ignored by the other political parties. The quiet, loyal, patriotic British people who have sat bemused over the last twenty years as a strident alien wedge of coloured immigrants has been introduced into their midst.

● People from every walk of life are members of the National Front.

Enough is enough, is how these British people feel, and now they are turning to the National Front, joining men and women who since 1967 have been working to promote the National Front and its aims.

If you would like to help return Britain to the British people then join the National Front. Just fill in the coupon below.
